2) Manulife Asset Management Services Berhad:

Each of the Funds has two classes of Units (Class A and Class B) and are distinguished by the amount of management fee charged by the Provider on each of those classes of Units.

However, all contributions to the Scheme will initially be utilised to purchase the Class A Units of the Funds. On the 10th anniversary of the date the first contribution was made to the Scheme by or for a Member, the Class A Units of all Funds held by the Member will automatically be converted to Class B Units of the respective Fund at no cost to the Member.

Accordingly, any subsequent contributions to the Scheme, after the said 10th anniversary will be utilised towards the purchase of Class B Units of any of the Funds. Not applicable to members reaching retirement age; death and members leaving the country permanently. Only for sub-account B.

3) Refers to transfer from one PRS to another PRS operated by another PRS Provider. May consist of a full transfer i.e. total amount from sub-account A and sub-account B. Payable to Provider. Does not include PPA fees.

4) Refers to switching between funds within a scheme.
